

October 24, 1940

E. S. WAGGONER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

E. S. Waggoner, for twenty-five years agent for the Great Northern railroad at Putney, died at the Britton hospital on Thursday, Oct. 17, following a long period of ill health. He had sought help for his malady at the Mayo hospital in Rochester several times but to no avail.

He came to Putney with his family from Cuyuga, N. Dak., in 1912, to take up his duties as station agent in Putney and continued in the service until 1937, when ill health forced him to resign.

He is survived by his wife, three children, a sister and a brother. The children are, Sterling of Halloway, Minn.; Miss Iva, of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Chester Thompson of Putney township.

The funeral services were held from the Paetznick funeral home in Groton on Sunday at 2:00 p. m., with the Rev. L. C. Benson, pastor of the Groton M. E. church, officiating. A trio, consisting of Jeanette Blader, Lulu Ann Rouse and Dawn Darlington, accompanied by Mrs. W. L. Hoover at the piano, sang "Saved by Grace" and "Abide With Me" at the service.

Pall-bearers were old-time neighbors and friends, W. J. A. Schoppe, Chris. Jensen, Floyd Honey, Nels Bonde, Emil Nelson and W. J. Honey. Interment was in the Groton cemetery.